Who is SALT?

SALT is a Christian dating and relationship app reimagining how single Christians find love and build relationships and is the No.1 Christian dating App in a number of markets around the world. Run by Christians, SALT exists to empower and encourage Christians on their whole relationship journey from singleness, to dating, to building a relationship and getting married.

SALT has been running for over 5 years and is wanting to breathe some new life and creativity into a number of its visual and creative assets. From the website, to the App and Play Store screenshots, the App Icon and much more, we want to ensure our brand, colours and designs bring joy and delight to our users.

Who are we looking for?

Firstly, and most importantly, we want to work with someone who has a great eye and fantastic design skills to bring their concepts to life.

We are initially looking for someone to come in and refresh all of our visual assets (apart from the SALT app itself) but are very open to discussing longer term part-time or full-time opportunities should there be a mutual fit and interest.

We're not concerned if you're 18 or 58, or where you're based in the world, all that matters is that you love design, and are able to work independently to create and implement fantastic visuals that follow a brief.

What specifically does the project entail?
